

Booking Your Bus from Mexico City to Puebla

*note that tickets are final sale and unable to be changed. If you are unsure what time you will be departing from Mexico City, tickets can be bought as you board the bus but subject to availability.

1. Visit the Ebus website.
2. Make sure you are on the “Rutas Especificas” tab and select “El Ángel CDMX” as the departure location.

3. Select “Terminal 4 Poniente PUE” as the arrival location.

4. Select the date you will be travelling from Mexico City to Puebla. Note that “Octubre” means October and “Noviembre” means November.

5. Select the number of travelers. Note that “Adulto” means Adult (13-59 years of age), “Menor” means Children (4-12 years of age), and INAPAM refers to Seniors (60+)

6. Once you have filled out all the information, press “Inicia tu compra” on the bottom right side of the screen.

7. If this screen pops up asking if you'd like to create an account, you can select “Continuar como invitado” to continue with your purchase as a guest.

8. Once you scroll down on the page, it will show you different options for departure times as well as how long the trip will take. Select your trip by clicking on the black square that says “Tarifa”. All buses are 300 pesos (about 16 USD) one way.

9. On the next screen, you will be directed to select your seat. Those wanting to see the landscape (once outside Mexico City!) should sit on the right-hand side of the bus. Seats shown in white are available to be selected and those in grey are occupied. Your seat selection will show up in green. Once you have selected your seat, click on “Siguiete” on the bottom right-hand side of the screen to continue.

10. On the following page, ensure that all travel details are correct. If they are, click “Siguiete” at the bottom right-hand side of the screen. If you would like to go back and make changes, click on “Regresar” on the bottom left-hand side of the screen.

11. Fill out your personal information and payment information on the following screen.

The screenshot shows a flight booking interface with two main sections: "DATOS DEL VIAJERO" (Traveler Data) and "DETALLES DEL PAGO" (Payment Details). The "DATOS DEL VIAJERO" section includes two identical forms for "Nombre" (Name) and "Edad" (Age), with gender selection options. The "DETALLES DEL PAGO" section shows a summary of costs: Sub total ($517.24), IVA ($82.76), and Total ($600). Below this is the "AGREGAR TARJETA" (Add Card) section, which includes fields for "Nombre del Tarjetahabiente" (Name on Card), "Número de tarjeta" (Card Number), "CCV" (Security Code), "Vigencia" (Expiration Date), "Correo electrónico" (Email address), "Teléfono" (Phone number), and "Código postal" (Zip Code). A "PAGAR" button is located at the bottom right, circled in red. Red arrows from external text labels point to the following fields: "Full name" to the first name field; "Gender" to the gender selection icons; "Age" to the age selection icons; "Security Code" to the CCV field; "Credit Card Number" to the card number field; "Name on Credit Card" to the name on card field; "Expiration Date" to the expiration date field; "Email address" to the email field; "Phone number" to the phone field; and "Zip Code" to the postal code field.
