FULBRIGHT TRAVEL 2020

Travel with Fulbright alums and friends who share your wish to experience, learn, and share. Our unique trips provide opportunities to meet alums whose experience in the USA has made personal and professional difference in their lives. Each trip is curated by a Fulbright Association Representative (FAR) who knows the country and has worked with the tour guides to make the in-country experiences broad and deep.

SERVICE CORPS TRIP TO THAILAND JANUARY 8-19, 2020

In Chiang Mai, you will teach English as a second language to underprivileged children, chat with Buddhist Monks, and visit Home for Single Mothers in Crisis Foundation and a Hmong Hill tribe, learn authentic Thai cooking, and interact with baby elephants. Founded in 1296, the city of Chiang Mai in northern Thailand is worth seeing. Explore its elaborate Buddhist temples, night bazaar, and its food markets filled with delicious edibles and fragrant spices.

INSIGHT TRIP TO SLOVENIA JUNE 6-16, 2020

The country of Slovenia is known as “Europe in Miniature.” Explore the magnificent Julian Alps in the West, the radiating coastline of the Adriatic in the South, the natural thermal spas in the East, and the charming baroque city of Ljubljana—the centrally located capital. You will enjoy top class wine cellars and superb gastronomy with the Mediterranean, Alpine and Panonian influences. Specific sites to see include: Ljubljana, Bled, Lake Bohinj, alpine museum and waterfalls, Kobarid WWI museum, Soča Valley, wineries, Lipica horses, Adriatic sea towns of Piran and Portorož, salt nature park, caves and castles, spa, - - all with fellow Fulbright alumni!

INSIGHT TRIP TO PORTUGAL AND SPAIN August 2020

We’ll start off in Lisbon, Portugal touring the Sao Jorge castle, cathedral, and Museu de Arte Antuiga, and spend an evening with Fado singers. We’ll also visit the Pena Palace in Sintra and explore picturesque fishing villages. Then, it’s off to Oviedo, the charming capital city of Asturias, Spain, where we’ll embark on a tour of the breathtaking but less traveled northeastern region of the country, all while enjoying delicious regional cuisine (if you’re a cheese lover, you can’t miss this trip!). We’ll explore ancient churches constructed in the 800s, the beautiful coastal city of Gijón, and prehistoric paintings in the Cave of Altamira in Santillana de Mar. Travelers will also enjoy time in the coastal cities of Santander, San Sebastian, and Bilbao, where we will visit the Guggenheim Museum. Lastly, we’ll stop in Burgos to experience its famous medieval architecture.

INSIGHT TRIP TO TAIWAN October 2020

An optional part of the Fulbright Association National Conference will be a trip of Taiwan. This island has pristine lakes, misty green mounts, serene and peaceful temples, fascinating museums, and exciting night markets.

For more information, go to fulbright.org/travel