Hello. I thank you for the privilege of chairing the Fulbright Association Board of Directors. As with each of you, my Fulbright experience changed my life. Each year we gather to celebrate that shared experience, reconnect and make new memories. For the last two years, because of the pandemic, we participated in the conference by Zoom. This year we are able to gather in person. It is, indeed, a reunion.

The world is a complex and changing place, but even in this time of wars, cataclysmic natural disasters and violent examples of man’s inhumanity to man, Fulbrighters continue to be creative, collaborate on valuable research, volunteer for public service and engage with other cultures. We truly are citizen diplomats.

In that vein, we are happy to have the Ukraine’s ambassador as our keynote speaker followed by a discussion moderated by Fulbrighter and Board Member Réka Szemerkényi, former Hungarian ambassador to the United States. From our opening keynote speaker, The Honorable Oksana Makarova, Ukraine’s ambassador to the United States, through our exciting and diverse plenaries, sessions and roundtables, to the last stimulating Fulbright Talk, this “reunion” conference is chock full of food for thought and opportunities for action as well as many chances to meet, greet and grow. On the final evening of the conference, we are able to celebrate with each other at our Chapter Awards Dinner.

I want to personally invite each of you to join me on Friday afternoon in viewing the film “Fulbright: The Man, The Mission and The Message”. It should provide dinner conversation as we dine in one of the many good restaurants available in Bethesda.

My sincere appreciation is extended to the hardworking Conference Committee and our dedicated staff for putting together such an impressive Reunion Conference.

As Peaches & Herb sang, “Reunited, and it feels so good.” Thank you, Fulbright Friends for your continued support and participation.

Most sincerely,

Cynthia Ackron Baldwin
Chair, Board of Directors

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Opening Keynote Speaker
Thursday, October 6 — 7:00 pm - 8:15 pm in Regency III & IV

Oksana Markarova
Ukraine’s Ambassador to the USA

The Fulbright Association is honored to host Ukraine’s Ambassador Oksana Markarova to deliver the keynote address to our Annual Conference. Ambassador Markarova will speak on the war in Ukraine, then a discussion, with Q&A, will follow.

Oksana Markarova was appointed the Ukraine’s Ambassador to the USA and arrived in DC on Apr 20, 2021. She served in Ukraine’s Ministry of Finance in 2015-2020 as First Deputy Minister and Government commissioner on investments and then since 2018 as a Minister of Finance.

Selma Jeanne Cohen Lecture Awardee
Friday, October 7 — 11:00 am -12:00 pm in Regency III & IV

Dr. Janaki Nair
University of Oxford

Dr Janaki Nair is a Kathakali performer and a visual anthropologist who continues to explore the concept of embodying, its aligning psychophysical practices, concepts and methodologies. Through her research, she explored possibilities of making ethnographic films to create cultural and artistic memories. She is a post-graduate (M.A) in Media and her second master’s degree (MFA) is in dance.

In 2020, she completed her PhD from Northumbria University with specialised supervision from University of Oxford. She is currently a Research Project Leader at the OCHS, University of Oxford. At University of Lincoln, she researched about sustainable education methodology in post-conflict settings. She won Kerala State Best Actress Award, 2015 for her acting skills and is elected as a Fellow of Royal Society of Arts, London in 2017.

Annual gathering of Association chapter leaders, representing nearly 60 chapters across the U.S. and online. During this important workshop, chapter leaders learn and share best practices, helping their chapters to grow, engage alumni, and serve their respective communities.

Peer Reviewer Volunteers

Thank you to our peer reviewer volunteers who gave their time and attention to review the numerous proposals for this year’s annual conference. We thank them for their dedication to the Fulbright community.

Outreach Global

Service Learning Opportunities

Our Alternative Study Abroad Program provides affordable, short-term service learning experiences to students and faculty, while also allowing faculty outreach engagement and research opportunities. In addition, participants are exposed to cultural, education, history, and social perspectives of various parts of the globe. Capacity Training is offered to domestic and global partners online and face-to-face. auburn.edu/outreach/global

The Campus Kitchen at Auburn University

The Campus Kitchen at Auburn University is an emerging leader in community service for students and resourceful anti-hunger programs for communities around Alabama.

Auburn University is an equal opportunity educational institution/employer.
